Circuit Court Adjourns.

The March term of the Bourbon Circuit Court adjourned Saturday afternoon after a busy three weeks session. Special Judge Butler Southgate, of Lexington, who presided during the term in the absence of regular Judge Robt. L. Stout, gave universal satisfaction. He was industrious and kept the attorneys moving, thereby clearing the docket of a number of cases that had been hanging fire for several terms of the court. Fairness by Special Judge Southgate was one of the predominate features in every case decided by him. He has a bright legal mind and showed through the entire term that he possesses all of the qualicfiations that a Circuit Judge should

The last important case before the court Saturday was that of J. M. O'Brien suing for the use of Bourbon county against J. W. Thomas, Jr., and in the case of Bourbon county on appeal from an order of the Bourbon Fiscal Court against J. W. Thomas, Jr., etc., the court entered an order consolidating the two cases and sustained demurrers to the answer filed in both cases with the exception of one paragraph to which no demurrer was filed for the claim of $102 for attending meetings of the Fiscal Court, and the attorneys of the plaintiff and defendants entered into an agreement by which the judgment is to be entered in favor of plaintiff, J. M. O'Brien, for the use of Bourbon county, against the defendant, J. W. Thomas, Jr., for the entire amount sued for in the petition with the exception of $102, and the attorneys further agreed that this case will be taken to the Court of Appeals, and the other cases to remain on the docket as they are, with the agreement that judgment shall go in these cases in accordance with whatever decision the Court of Appeals makes in the above styled case. The plaintiff was represented by T. E. Moore, Jr., and the defendants by McMillan & Tal-

The other cases are J. M. O'Brien suing for the use of Bcurbon county vs. J. D. Dejarnett, A. C. Ball, J. T. Barlow, H. C. Ingram, James H. Hopkins, J. P. Howell and L.C. Anderson. If the decision against Thomas is affirmed by the Court of Appeals, Bourbon county will recover in round numbers about $13,000.

Meeting Closed.

Rev. Dr. J. Addison Smith, of Richmond, who has been assisting Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive in a two weeks meeting at the Second Presbyterian church, closed the meeting Sunday night. Dr. Smith is a gifted pulpit orator, an elo-quent and forcible speaker. His sermons were principally addressed to church members. His series of sermons were strong and to the point. He was one of the most fluent speakers ever heard in our city, and his references to ancient and modern history were remarkable. His preaching will long be remembered by those who heard him, and will redound to much good in this community. There were three additions to the church during the meeting.

Tax Wealth, not Poverty.

Debate upon the tariff was begun ast week in the House by Mr. Payne. He and his associates have many things to explain.

Why is tea to be taxed eight and nine cents a pound? Wayne MacVeigh! has told Mr. Payne, in a letter worthy of the lofty idealism of an austerer past, that many rich men would prefer to pay taxes that would rob them of no luxury rather than see increasing burdens laid upon "those less fortunate brothers whose lives are passed in that increasing calculation of sorrow where hard toil sometimes provides-and some times fails to provide-sufficient daily bread." Why not leave tea free and make the inheritance tax, as Mr.

Carnegie suggests, "good and stiff" Why leave upon sugar a tariff of nearly two cents a pound, which Mr. MacVeagh truly calls infamous," as it often takes from the laboring man more than from the richest multi-milsaving $10 or more a year for a poor man with a numerous brood, and get revenue by a constitutional graduated income tax? Why, as Mr. MacVeagh asks, exempt from proper taxation the 'colossal incomes and colossal accumulations" of surplus weatlh?

Why raise the tariff rates on machine-knit stockings, gloves and a dozen othera articles of the commonest Why keep the wool rates nearly Franklin Pierce shows, compels poor men to shiver in shoddy and cotton in our bitter winds?

Will not the maximum and minimum provision, as suggested when the bill was reported, in practice rob the consumer? The maximum rate must be has an export coffee duty. That would mean nearly a cent a pound tax upon three fourths of all the coffee we get. The "retaliation" would be upon the American people. It has been suggested that we might be obliged to use the maximum rate even against our best customer, Great Britan.

So far as the Payne bill does reduce will always avoid the crime, even when the tariff upon important staples, as in it is suggested, because it is too hazarthe steel, wood and paper schedules, it dous. is a short step in the right direction. But it leaves tariff rates still far beyond defensible limits. It perpetuates the plundering of the consumer. It is, as the minority report says, "sectional and prohibitive." It leaves the inevitable great battle for tariff reform and uncertainty still hanging over the business community. It is but a stop to public opinion.

Yet clear and plain lies the path of ficisal common sense. Tax wealth, not Got 'Em at Last.

Green R. Keller, the senior editor of the Carlisle Mercury, has got 'em at last-snakes? no, wuser and more of 'em-rats! Poor Green, one of the best that ever happened, it's sad.

We have at times thought that the religious spurts made by our dear brother occasionally that he had crcssed the line and had landed in the right path, but one cannot always tell. It is said that he began to stumble back into the old ways when local coption hit his town-was all right until they voted the canteen in and sidetracked the

His brother editors would not be so shocked if it was snakes, white ele phants, or even fishing worms that were troubling him, but for them to new place on South Main think that it is the pestifierous rats makes them quiver in their shoes for poor Keller, who is one of the brightest, jolliest and all-round good fellows in Kentucky.

He has gone so far as to issue a proclamation setting forth May 17 as 'rat killing day" in Nicholas. To save our noble Keller to his friends we pray you, Nicholas county people to rid your county of these varmints.

Punishment for Kidnapers.

The kidnaping of a child always prompts a demand for drastic laws for the punishment of kidnapers, says the Philadelphia Ledger. The law of Pennsylvania fixes the maximum penaity for kidnapping at life imprisonment, and is a good law. Certainly it would be unwise to provide capital punishment, as has been suggested within a few days. Undoubtedly miscreants who thus play with life and death and bring the furies to the door of the parents of the stolen child deserve no clemency. They should be outlawed then blotted from the earth's aclionaire? Why not make sugar free, tivities, but capital punishment would probably not be more efficacious in preventing kidnaping, and it would almost assure the death of the kidnapped in case of pursuit and threatened capture of the criminals. The parents of the kidnapped in this and in all other cases play, to a certain extent, at cross purposes with the State and the police, who naturally are eager to pay any price at command to protect the criminals, to thwart the police and the at the preposterous height which, as cause of justice, and to do anything under heaven if they may but receive their own back safe and sound. This is human nature, and every father and mother would do likewise. The interests of the State, which are the interests of all other fathers and mothers and their children, require above all enforced against Brazil because she things, that the criminals shall be caught at all hazards. One of the chief objects is, of course, to retrieve the boy alive and well, but a greater object is to seize and to punish the vile criminals. The safety of other families makes it imperative that kidnapers shall never escape with their booty, and that the most desperate criminals

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, eing a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of con-sumption, there can be no doubt that glysumption, there can be no doubt that gly-cerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's robt and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure yonsumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe obsticonsumption except in its earlier it will cure very severe obstiate, hang-on, chronic coughs, bronchia nd larvngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia itserves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity." acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

BLUE GRASS LEAGUE NOTES.

The contract for the erection of the grand stand and bleachers on the Paris ball park has been let to Geo. B. Minter & Son, of this city. The grand stand is to be eighty-four feet long with seven rows of seats and seven boxes to have a seating capacity of something like five hundred, while the two bleachers, one sixty feet long with five rows high, the other sixteen feet long and five rows high will have a seating capacity of about three hundred. The contractors will begin the work of erection immediately.

The grounds at the Paris baseball park have been laid off by Matty Schwab, ground-keeper for the Cincinnati National League team, and he predicts that Paris will have one of the prettiest ball parks in Kentucky.

The contract will be let this week for the erection of a seven foot tight board fence around the entire grounds of the Paris baseball park.

A. F. Frendberg, civil engineer of the L. & N., is assisting in the grad-ing of the baseball park. It is a busy time at the park these days.

We are now able to give the full list of signed men for the Paris Baseball Club, which are as follows:

Watching French Tariff.

American manufacturers are watching with much interest the progress of the new French tariff bill. Under its provisions United States factories, already at a disadvantage, will be further handicapped in meeting the com-petition of other nations. On many important articles the maximum tariff which American manufacturers pay is increased, while the minimum rates are not changed.

THEATRICAL.

THE " MERRY WIDOW."

-"The Merry Widow," presented by Henry W. Savage's famous, original New York Company, intact, is the notable attraction announced by Mana-6 and 7.

Ever since the great success scored in Lexington by Mr. Savage's admir-able Southern "Merry Widow" compapy, Manager Scott has been negotiating with Mr. Savage for the appearance there of the great organization that presented the Lehar operetta for 52 consecutive weeks at the New Am sterdam Theatre, New York. This company, the finest and largest ever sent out on tour, is on its way to play a spring and summer engagement at the Colonial Theatre, Chicago, visiting en route, only a very few of the largest cities, as Philadelphia, Washington and Pittsburg. But Mr. Scott finally induced Mr. Savage to arrange for the three peformances in Lexing-ton, a compliment of a very unusual sort to that community.

This original New York organization is transported on a special train of eight cars. including three sixty-foot cars for the massive scenery, two Pullman sleeping cars and a dinner and two chair cars. The immense amount of scenery and the number of distinguished players in the company, the cast comprising in round figures one hundreed persons, makes it impossible for the railroads to carry the organization on the regular trains.

In every detail the cast, chorus, orchestra, costumes, scenery and stage detail the forthcoming presentation there will be absolutely identical with those given in New York. It is worthy of note, in this connection, that this is the company that drew-during the record-breaking engagement in the metropolis-700,000 music lovers to the New Amsterdam Theatre, with total receipts of more than $1,000,000.

Among the principal to be seen will be Frances Cameron, Charles Meakins Franceska Kaspar, Robert E. Graham, Teresa Van Brune, Fred Frear, Ada F. S. Elder, local representative of the National accident and Life Insurance Company, was seriously hurt in a Charles Edward Wright. The original Charles Edward Wright.

Old Millersburg Man Dead.

J. R. McCormick, 85 years old, a veteran of the Mexican and civil wars, died at the Confederate home at Higginsville, Mo., last Tuesday, as the result of a fist blow by Jim Cumimngs. Cummings was a follower of the noted train and bank robbers, the James and Younger boys in the days of their maraudings. In a fight Cum mings struck the blow that caused Mc-Cormick's death. A coroner's jury returned a verdict that McCormick came to his death from a blow delivered by

Cummings, but as McCormick was the aggressor, Cummings was held blame McCormick was formerly of Millers-burg, this county, leaving there for Missouri about 35 years ago. He was with Morgan in all of his raids and was considered one of his bravest and most daring men. He will be remembered by the old-timers at Millersburg.
